rule that indicates that they will receive either ten or fifteen minutes but it is on the order, and if they exceed that time, then they will be put on special order. This is an attempt to be fair to those of you who have not had your bills on General File processed. This is a new approach and we would appreciate your cooperation and also your comments. So, and tomorrow we will hear special order on multibank, is that it, Senator DeCamp, multibank holding corporations. Mr. Clerk, do you have something to read into the record.

CLERK: Yes, sir, I do. Senator Warner asks unanimous consent to print amendments to LB 227; Senator DeCamp to LB 152; Senator Nichol to LB 75; and Senator Hefner to LB 123.

I have a committee statement from the Banking Committee reporting on LR 43.

I have four new resolutions, LR 64. Read. LR 65. Read. LR 66. Read. That will be laid over. LR 67. Read. That will be laid over. (See pages 1669 - 1672, Legislative Journal.)

Senator Dworak offers an explanation of vote, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Carsten, after this eventful day, would you like to move adjournment until nine o'clock tomorrow morning.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I move we adjourn until nine o'clock tomorrow morning, April 26.

SPEAKER MARVEL: I want to thank those of you brave souls who have stayed day after day. It is sincerely appreciated. All those in favor of the Carsten motion say aye, opposed no. Motion is carried and we are adjourned until nine o'clock tomorrow morning.
